

Disagreement Template

Build an argument together by identifying the evidence, perspectives, and proposals that best support each side.

What is the disagreement about?

What is the unacceptable difference between two or more perspectives that sparks anxiety?

Who is participating?

What are the names of the people actively participating in this disagreement?

What is true?

What can be verified via an external source as being factually true or untrue?

What is meaningful?

What personal stories, preferences, values, and beliefs feel threatened by each person participating?

What is useful?

What proposals are on the table that participants would bet for and against?
